Dear Friends in Christ,

It is with deep gratitude that I write to you in this position as interim senior pastor of FLC. I had intended to turn things back over to Pastor Bonnie by now for this newsletter responsibility. However, as you've no doubt read, she is not following the schedule/timing following surgery that she thought she would be on.

That brings up the questions: Are we ever going to be on our preferred schedule? How does timing work for us as a child of God? What's the best attitude to have when change is afoot?

When Jesus was asked about timing matters - re: the specific schedule of God's work in God's world - he responded as recorded in Acts 1:7 "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority." Message received!

In Luke 14 Jesus asks, "Which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, saying, "This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish."

We've all been eager for Pastor Bonnie's return to the leadership of our congregation. However, we've been notified that that return is delayed. We've been told that between now and either June 1st or July 1st a reassessment of her plan to return to work will be made. So.... that's what we'll wait for.

What we'll also wait for - or better said: take action in regard to is the work God has put into our hands. We'll build our own proverbial towers here at First Lutheran Church - Columbia Heights.

We are quite capable of continuing in the fashion that we see as our best course of transformational action for now. Christ is the sure foundation we are building on. Our ministry is not limited to any one leader being present in order for us to keep adding on to the ministry we've been attending to. We've got work to do - changing people's lives through the presence of God's Spirit among us.

As you know, in Pastor Bonnie's absence, I will continue to work with staff, council, and leadership - along with volunteers of our church - to reach people with God's love and God's help. We won't be mocked for stopping our work because we've actually counted the cost and we've got a clear calling to keep at it. The stakes are too high for us to pause now.

The reason I write from a place of gratitude is that I'm so thankful for the very capable people God has put in place here to serve alongside me at our church.

We're going to be fine. We'll pursue the scope of work that we've been asked to carry out. We'll even do some new ventures - if the Holy Spirit leads us in that direction. We'll be faithful. That's what we're called to do.

Thank you for all the prayers of support and the words of affirmation and encouragement that you've given to me in my work in this role as interim pastor.

I had not planned on being here this long. But I'm just like you - ready to zig and zag according to how life presents new schedules for us to follow. I'm just glad to spend more time in communication and partnership with you - including in writing this publication.

Peace be with you, my friends. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns as we move forward by faith. I'm excited to see how the new timing and schedule of things pan out. But I'll hold onto this new time-line expectation with a loose grip. I'll make room for adjustments - and God's grace!

Pastor Scott Jakel

If you are looking for a tangible way to do something to show your support for Pastor Bonnie and to honor her ministry while she's on medical leave, here's some suggestions.

Rather than buying flowers, why not access the ELCA Good Gifts gift list and give something in honor and appreciation for Pastor Bonnie.

Beginning April 14, Pastors Jill and Scott along with Nathan will be preaching from the New Testament portions of scripture found in the Acts of the Apostles and Corinthians in the next couple of months.

Then we'll focus on faith, hope, and love and finish with an emphasis on the power of new life and the Holy Spirit as we come to the month of May.

We'll emphasize heralding the message of Jesus in our witnessing, the healing that comes in Christ's name, and both handling resistance to our work through perseverance and handling rejection through cooperation in Christ.

We look forward to sharing God's Word in powerful, life-changing ways each week on Sunday mornings. Don't miss it! God's Word is like a seed that needs to be planted in our hearts - especially as we move into the planting season of Spring! To God be the glory.

Summer Sermon Series, 1 John: Belonging Through Believing and Being God's Love in Community

We'll celebrate and concentrate on faith active in love in the family of God and in God's World in need and learn how to care for those in Christ's Community in our deeds as well as our words.

Experiencing Life Eternal Even Now

You can spend $10 for some baby chicks who will grow up to be chickens and be part of an ongoing supply of protein-rich meals for a family in need.

For the same price you can purchase a fruit-tree seedling which will be an investment in a community in some place in need that can have an impact for generations to come. Same price: a blanket to be given to a survivor in the aftermath of a disaster or emergency. Honeybees cost $20 and provide honey to eat and beeswax plus the bees help pollinate plants.

Earth Day Columbia Heights Clean up

Story Telling Night: "Stories from our Palestinian Neighbors"

We had a powerful night during "Stories from our Palestinian Neighbors" in March. We heard stories from our Palestinian neighbors who have immigrated to the Twin Cities and Columbia Heights. Each of the Palestinian storytellers had lost many family members during the war in Gaza.

Buy Nothing Spring Event

We again partnered with Columbia Heights "Buy Nothing" group for a free swap in March. Around 150 people came to shop and share. Our entire Commons and link were filled with people's things to be re-homed. We are looking at hosting another event in the fall. Thank you to Jennifer, Patty, Bob, Kathy, Karen, Linda, Nathan, and Rachel for helping host this great group!

Lutefisk Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

Thanks to all who helped prepare and serve the lutefisk dinner this year. We served 934 meals and raised over $13,000 for our church benevolences, for camp credits and for the church budget.

By far the compliment heard most often (besides how full they are) is how welcome and how well cared for our guests feel when they come to our dinner. And that happens because of all of you, your smiling faces and helpful hands. This event has always felt more like a congregational event, rather than a fund raiser or just a big dinner. It is a treat to work with young and not so young volunteers and get to know each other better. On top of that, we get to have some fun doing something that many of us don't do very often. Thank you for another very successful dinner.

Music Sunday Sunday, May 12, 10 AM

On this Sunday, we will celebrate the many musicians of FLC! This will be a music-filled service with the Family Choir, Sanctuary Choir, Contemporary Ensemble, Campanile Handbell Ensemble and instrumentalists! Come and honor our own FLC musicians in a service of praise and celebration!

Hello from the desk of the Finance & Operations Manager.

One wintry Friday in February I stayed late at work and decided spontaneously to attend the evening's Northwest College Concert performed at FLCCH. The College Choir sang a choral piece by Josef Anton Bruckner and was accompanied on the organ by our very own Jeffrey Patry. Still mourning the loss of my mom I was struck by the beauty of the Sanctuary and the wonderful sounds of the organ as well as the talent of the Choir. It made me feel at peace and appreciative of the experience I was given as part of my work environment.

This collaboration with another nonprofit organization is only one example of the many activities happening at FLCCH to engage in outreach, carry out the church's mission and to welcome the cooperation with other nonprofit partners. But inviting other communities to our campus also means the need for scheduling and maintaining it. Joyce continues to oversee our facility usage, invoicing, safety precautions and maintain various building calendars.

During this quarter alone, Jody and his team repaired bathroom sinks, rearranged the Commons Area, painted walls, made sidewalks safer by spreading woodchips and completed replacing of lights and repairing the window in the Sanctuary. The maintenance team has also worked hard to create a list of long term project goals in order to be a responsible landlord to our tenants.

Nathan has started to form a task force joined by congregation members and staff to help and complete new lease negotiations with our current schools. As Bultum Academy and Meadowlark are growing we need to address early on their room needs and our own building limitations. More to come in the next Caller.

In this issue I also want to address a couple of tax questions regarding the tax exempt status of DAF and IRA made charitable donations which have come up recently.

If a donor contributes to FLCCH through a donor-advised fund (DAF) or through an IRA fund those donations are considered tax deductible. Donors who contribute to the DAF or an IRA receive an immediate tax deduction. When the donor recommends these grants to go to the church, FLCCH receives these funds and they will be recorded in our donation software as charitable donations. However, on the tax giving statement those donations will not be marked as tax exempt as they have already received a tax deduction. Instead, each donor receives an individual donation receipt letter at the end of the tax year as their tax receipt clearly stating that these donations have been distributed by a DAF or an IRA account. These letters can be forwarded to the donor's tax accountants or kept as individual records as official tax receipt documentation.

If you have any financial questions/concerns, please don't hesitate to stop by my office or contact me by phone/email. jana@flcch.org, 763-788-9653 ext. 104
